

We March Like Ants

I'm interested in foreign coins.
I want to walk on their surfaces. I want to read them.
I imagine if you read them you know what it's like to walk inside them.
Not to mention live inside them.
I want to make a home inside every coin I have in a small pile, and I want to live in all of them at once.

Some are neater [. . .]

Take a relaxing break, won't you.
Inside a Ten.
(It's shiny!) It's small / it's a small one.

We acquired these coins out
in the open. [. . .]

I shall walk in them [. . .] ants [. . .]
